Established 1853. NDIANA'S GREATEST STORE

An Attractive Showing

An exceptional gathering of choice patterns in Carpets, Rugs, Mattings and Linoleums that, from range of selection, completeness of stock and special prices, the display admits absolutely of none better.

carpet rooms admit of perfect and complete showings-which makes our stock this season the largest we have ever attempted.

Here are some special numbers to make it worth while coming to see what we have:

2,000 yards All-wool Ingrain Carpets, neat patterns, a 000 yards All-wool Ingrain Carpets, a yard ..... the $1.10 quality, at, a Hall and Stair Carpets, of 98c

000 yards Wilton Velvet Carpets, for-our price, a fine velvets, at, a yard ......

PETTIS DRY GOODS CO.

Save Your Nickels!

See What 5 Cents a Day or $1.50 Per Month Will Do in Ten Years at 3% Interest.

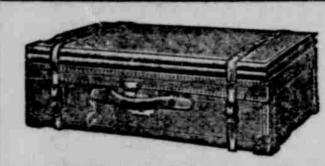

1 Year
2 Years	*			37.16
3 Years	*******
4 Years	*			76.57
5 Years			*	91.18
6 Years	*			118.40
A Years	*			140.26
8 Years				162.81
9 Years				186.03
10 Years			820	9.92
THE	ABOVE	TABLE	SHOWS	WHAT

CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED WITH THE VERY SMALL SUM OF FIVE CENTS PER DAY, MAKING IT POSSIBLE FOR TO HAVE A BANK ACCOUNT.

The Indiana Trust Co.

WATCH OUR ADVERTISING SPACE FOR NEW TABLES WEEKLY. CAPITAL . . . . . $1,000,000

Offices in Company's Building this was as it should have been. Cor. Wash. St. and Virginia Ave.

BEEHIVE TRUNK FACTORY

Trunks Traveling Bags Suit Cases, etc. MORRISCH & CO.

for Spring and Summer. ---PRICES---

44 Fast Washington Street.

King Quality Hats, $3.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS

LONDON, April 18.-The Prince and Princess of Wales, with their suite, started to-day for Vienna, where they will visit the Emperor Francis Joseph.

Czarina Has Influenza.

In the Theaters of Indianapolis

To-Day's Schedule. GRAND.-High-class vaudeville, 2:15 and PARK .- "The Governor's Son," 2 and MPIRE .- Burlesque, 2 and 8 p. m. JNIQUE.-Variety, 3 and 8 p. m.

"The Runaways" at English's.

The best that can be said of "The Runsome as a production. With Fay Templerun last year at the big playhouse on the standpoint of quality, wide Broadway. Without Fay Templeton it tails, just as he was once to do as the Our fine and newly enlarged present time, and as Fay Templeton is no lous affair, which they call "The New

the evening, dozens of gowns as expensive as the feminine heart could desire, and | Their singing is better than their comedy. either, being reasly rich and gorgeous. Feminine finery was the mainstay of the .65c . that there was a clever little comedian at sirels in the palmy days of that organi-Beautiful patterns Velvet Carpets, women who filled their parts acceptably, up as a colored nurse girl he rids him-98c but there were also a number of leading Not that these parts could have been made lower register, but little more than a much of even by players of genius, but, at squeak in the higher tones. The probecoming utterly idiotic.

with borders to match, a $1.25 Plot and continuity are not to be expected in the Broadway musical shows nowed in the Broadway musical shows now-Wilton Velvet Carpets, the finest adays, and their absence is overlooked when lot of styles and designs shown in there is wit in the lines or funny situations the city—a quality others ask $1.65 in the piece. But there is very little wit in $1.50 The Runaways," and were it not for the fact that the diminutive Arthur Dunn is naturally an amusing comedian the piece would drag drearily throughout, despite its kaleidoscopic environment, and become very stupid sort of performance.

There are no really good singing voices among the principals, but last night's audience-an assembly of moderate proportions that was disposed to be friendly-did | theater three months ago and made a very applauded all of the musical numbers quite ten by a young man named Addison Burkhart-but let that pass. It was his first offense, and he may never do it again. Besides, he wrote it for a Philadelphia presentation in the Quaker City-and he probably thought that anything would do. The story of the piece will not be reviewed here, as many who attended the performance might object to having it brought up becoming bored altogether. His song, "A | wing" melodies. Kiss for Each Day in the Week," in which

Mr. Dunn, showed talent either as a fun- male roles are well handled by Charles maker or singer. "The Runaways" was Pussey, Walter Chester, Peter Curley, Will booked for but the sinble performance and Halliday and George W. Williams.

Ruth Halbert, Hilda Hawthorne, Louise The Vaudeville at the Grand.

bright particular star of the Grand's new farce entitled "Hello Bill."

programme. Nature has lavishly endowed this popular singer with beauty of face and form and has also given her a soprano voice of unusual purity and sweetness. She presents a stunning appearance in her roars of laughter from time to time, show- dying, the police here are searching for on the stage. Her style is more polished than that of the other prima donnas who have recently taken the vaudeville stage, and her tone production easy. For the extolling the merits of the different memfirst half of the week Miss Bertram is singing four songs-the ever beautiful ballad, "For All Eternity," the love song, "Dream of Me," with its tuneful refrain, ment of the house is delighted, notwith- in a letter which the police received from the threadbare "Violets," and a little negro lullaby. Her voice is heard to splendid advantage, but she would do well to sub- ment is not up to the standard. stitute another number for "Violets," which has been sung by every lyric artist this week, with a long-drawn-out first that has ever appeared at the Grand. Miss part, "A Misfit Family," kept the large Bertram was warmly greeted at yester- audiences yesterday in good humor from day's performances and will doubtless the rise of the curtain until the end. The prove a strong drawing card this week. lines were spoken in a most amateurish gramme that played an engagement at the | jealous sweetheart. Grand once before this season is the mu-

In the olio the Grahams, Frank and sical act of the Milani trio. These three Grace, are applauded for their illustrated Italians, with their melodious voices and songs. The latter leaves the stage during their ability as instrumental musicians, the act and operates the machine in the give a pleasing performance, and though balcony. Joe Morris, Hebrew parody singtheir songs are sung in their native lan- er, Wink and Mack, acrobats, and Colon guage, the audience greatly enjoys every Ward, Dobbs and Leigh, singers, complete again seen in their laughable little farce, | watha."

COTTAGE PLAN ON NEW SITE OF LOCAL ORPHAN ASYLUM-

Location Near Irvington Is Sought Illness of Short Duration Proves for Adoption of Change in Methods of Institution.

The trustees of the Indianapolis Orphan street, about a mile on this side of Irving- at 6:30 o'clock last night of typhoid fever ton. Before anything definite can be done after an illness of eighteen days. the present lot on College avenue and Thirteenth street must be disposed of. The where his parents reside and where he had trustees ask in the neighborhood of $60,000 an uncle, a physician. He was twentyfor this land and building, while the high- seven years of age and would have gradas the present quarters are not only in- in this city and during a greater part of that the caring for children of all agesfrom three weeks to fifteen years-in the same building is impracticable. In new quarters the cottage plan will be adopted. There will probably be five cottages for the five grades of children-boys from two to six, girls from two to six, boys from six to fifteen, girls from six to thirteen, and the infants.

TO VISIT EMPEROR HUSBAND OF ACTRESS ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

CHICAGO, April 18.-Despondent because of ill health and because his business had failed, John J. Kennelly, a cafe proprietor, whose wife formerly starred as Helen St. ST. PETERSBURG, April 18.-The Em- Clair in the Royal Opera Company, shot ess is suffering from influenza, which is and killed himself to-day at his home in ville. Tom Browne, the whistler, who once belonged to Charles Hoyt's forces, has a would not have been good for a fortnight's | waiter at the Cliff House in "A Trip to Chinatown," and, while engaged at his work, whistles in wonderfully clever fashand beautiful costuming. Much is forgiven, ion. He afterwards plays his own plano accompaniments for several whistling horseplay that is to be seen every week ing most of their attention to chasing each other over the head with sticks and dashof the company is the one thing that stands faces-a pleasant occupation, of course, but one which does not always interest other people. However, the quartet is audience who care for that sort of fun. the clothes were not of the property sort | The two Goolmans are on the bill in "freak" instruments being first class. Wilperformance; tunefulness and talent were Ham Windom, who used to be a ballad conspicuous by their absence. It is true singer with the Primrose and West minthe head of the cast and several young zation, appears in a black-face act. Made parts in the hands of incompetent people. | songs in a voice that is still sweet in the least, they might have been saved from gramme, as usual, is rounded out by the never-failing bioscope.

Musical Farce at the Park.

Of all the musical shows playing the popular-price circuits this season George M. Cohan's "The Governor's Son" is about the hest. At least it is superior to all productions of its class that have been seen at This merry musical farce played an engagement at the popular-price Indianapolis not seem to mind this shortcoming, and favorable impression at the time. It returned yesterday for another half-week's stay, and pleased large audiences in the

As a play "The Governor's Son" is not to be considered seriously, but as merely hodge-podge of jokes, funny situations, audience-"The Runaways" had its initial | bright musical numbers and dances it is a | bert W. Laing, a real-estate dealer in this good entertainment. Solos, choruses, marches, gags, airy parsiflage and tricks of every sort known to farce-comedy follow each other in rapid succession in the piece, and the result is a show which, while again, while those who didn't attend it neither novel nor especially original, has would far better be left in happy ignorance | no dull moments. It is one of the best of it. The score of the piece was composed staged musical pieces ever offered at the of her wealth. The final decision of the by Raymond Hubbell, with numerous in- | Park. The chorus girls are prettily costerpolated numbers by other song writers. | tumed and the entire handling of the stage, Mr. Hubbell's work is somewhat better in groupings, scenery and every detail, than that of his librottist, but the extra shows that the effort has been made, and numbers are the songs that score the bigthe usual level of attractions of its class Arthur Dunn was the only humorous fig- | seen in the cheaper playhouses. The music ure of the performance; he achieved a per- is also quite an advance over the customary sonal success and kept the audience from | polyglot of ragtime songs and "buck-and-he was assited by the six prettiest young | several of the characters of the cast are ALMOST EVERY CHILD IN THE STATE | women of the company, proved to be the equally prominent in the unfolding of the eleverest of the musical numbers. Helen ridiculous plot-if plot it can be called. Lord did the best work among the women | John McVeigh continues to play the title of the cast, singing and acting her part | part, originally acted by the author of the quite attractively and scoring something farce, and gives a praiseworthy performof a hit with her "Firefly" song. Erminie | ance. He is not the dancer that Cohan is, Earle appeared in the part that was taken but he possesses a much better singing EVERY CHILD IN THE CITY AND in New York by Fay Templeton and, al- voice and knows how to render his topical STATE TO OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH though acting gracefully, her singing voice songs with excellent effect. Harry W. Lesgood in the case of Mabel Carrier. Not | disguised as a Dutch comedian, does much one of the men in the company, aside from | toward helping the fun along, and the other

Gould and Grace Hazard are at the head of the feminene contingent, and all are of DYING MOTHER FEARS pleasing personality and good singers and dancers. Miss Hawthorne's work is partic ularly good, as she plays her role of the widow in just the right comedy spirit. "The Governor's Son" will continue as the bill for the first half of the week at the Park and is deserving of good business. It will be followed Thursday by another musical #### Burlesque at Empire.

To keep an audience in good humor, esthe company is pleased and the manage- fore his mother became ill, was contained standing the opinion of one newspaper or a friend of the woman to-day. a half dozen newspapers that the entertain-

The Trocadero Burlesquers at the Empire ashion by the majority of the members The fair singer is not the only Hoosier of the company, and the acting was pitiful performer on the bill. Edward Reynard, at times, but nevertheless it pleased. The the ventriloquist, is back again for another | company, perhaps, can be classed with the week's visit in his home city, and, as second-grade burlesques that have been usual, he gives a little entertainment of seen at the local theater this season. his own that is superior to anything else Frank Graham is the bright particular in the ventriloquial line now before the star of the aggreagtion, and he earns every Reynard was seen here early in cent of his salary. In the burlesque, as a season with the Orpheum road show, rich uncle from New York, he does a clever but his act is always well worth witness- bit of character acting. Tom Haverly, as ing, and it received a hearty reception a not-too-ardent lover, makes laughs by yesterday. Another specialty on the pro- his efforts to keep out of the way of a

Frederick Hallen and Mollie Fuller are The show closes with a burlesque, "Hia-

MEDICAL STUDENT DIES ON EVE OF HIS GRADUATION

Fatal During Last Fortnight of School.

Clifford Burroughs, a popular member Asylum are trying to secure a desirable of the senior class of Indiana Medical piece of property on East Washington | College, died at the Deaconess Hospital

His home was in Shannondale, Ind., est offer so far is $48,000. It is hoped that | uated from his college on April 22. He had in three weeks arrangements can be made, made a good record during his residence commodious, but unsuitable. The matron | the time had roomed at 238 West Michigan of the asylum, Miss Carrie Thrall, says street. The senior class of the college will send. meet this afternoon at 1 o'clock to make arrangements for the funeral.

> TO DISCUSS INSURANCE AT CLUB'S SMOKER

> A smoker will be given by the Commercial Club Thursday, when fire insurance will lead the discussion.

Theatrical Man Weds.

NEW YORK, April 18.-The marriage of Frederick R. Hamlin, a well-known theatrical man, of this city and Chicago, and Miss Mary Burton Cadow, of Chicago, was solemnized to-day by the Rev. John R. Pax-

Craig's candies are certainly good.

Indianapolis Prima Donna Who Is Scoring a Hit at the Grand.

LIVED IN IGNORANCE OF WEALTH KEPT BY FATHER

the Park during the present theatrical year. Story Told by Heiress Who Wedded Mechanic and Now Seeks to Recover Fortune.

CASE TAKEN TO COURTS

CHICAGO, April 18 .- According to a decision in the Probate Court to-day Cuthcity, is indebted in the sum of $250,000, including interest, to his daughter, Irene Laing Malcolm, of Toledo, O. It was charged that Laing had squandered the estate and kept his daughter in ignorance Governor Hamilton will receive instructions from the court as to what procedure he shall take to recover what rightfully belongs to the daughter.

Whether or not the sureties for Laing former Senator William E. Mason and Dr. V. C. Price, are to be sued on their bonds will be decided by the court Saturday. The story told by the daughter reads like When she was an infant her mother died, leaving the estate to her. She in Michigan, and grew into womanhood ignorant that she was heir to a large estate. When her grandparents died she came to Chicago to her father, who, she says, did not tell her of her wealth, and she married a mechanic. Soon after the marriage she learned of the money left her, but her father, she said, denied the truth of the story. She appealed to former Governor Hamilton, and the suit for an accounting followed. Laing claimed that he acted in all transactions with the permission of his daughter, and that she knew all about the estate.

SON WILL BE ROBBED

Police Searching for Young Man Who May Be Cheated of Fortune That Awaits Him.

CHICAGO, April 18.-While Mrs. William pecially an Empire audience, to elicit up- Brown, of Hanover, O., is thought to be The request that search be made for the man, who is said to have left home be-

The Seed Book.

There's a picture book I know, There's a picture book I know, And it tells you quite succinctly How to make your garden grow. Tells you when you should begin it. Telis you what you should put in it, nd it tells you just as true As that one and one make two.

Here's a man who wants to know If potatoes, Or tomatoes. Being planted in a row, Early June. 'Pogee moon, Will like watermelons grow.

Yes they will. See, here's the picture. Yes, they will. The book says so. There's a picture book I know, There's a picture book I know, And it has some illustrations Like a fancy flower show. There are white and ruby roses, There are sweet and pretty posles,

You have simply got to sow 'em, Oh, a little child can grow 'em! Here's a girl who wants to know: "If I plant some Orange blossoms, And the orange blossoms grow," Then she blushes

As she gushes,
"Do you think I'd get a beau?"
Yes, you would. See, here's the picture.
"Cabbage head!" The book says so. -New York Evening Sun.

THE JOURNAL'S SHOPPING DEPART-MENT:

For the Use of Journal Subscribers. The Journal has established a free shopping department for the use of its readers. All Journal subscribers are invited to use the department freely at all times. Experts have been engaged as Journal shopping commissioners who will personally execute any orders readers wish to When you see an attraction in the Journal advertising columns and find it inconvenient to visit the stores yourself, communicate with the Journal's Shopping Dewill be made within an hour of the time the order is received, and it will be made by an expert shopper-one who knows how to buy cial Club Thursday, when fire insurance and buy well. All merchants advertising in the Journal are thoroughly reliable, and purchases made by the Journal's staff will "Ale be at the lowest figures obtainable by any-

> The shopping will be done absolutely without expense to you or to the merchant. The one requirement is that you be a Jour-All correspondence relating to purchases or prospective purchases will be answered promptly and fully. Any class of purchases you wish will be made. If you want anyhing from a pair of gloves to an automobile, you can give your order through the weeks in Chicago. Mrs. John Dalrymple is spending a few days in Morristown with friends. Mr. Donald Scott, of Columbus, Ind. not marry the first girl he ever loved is bewas in the city yesterday visiting friends. Mrs. Owen Davies Odell will not observe | cause she won't have him. This view her usual Tuesday afternoon at home to- brightened her up considerably, and in half an hour she was eating chocolate caramels Miss Frances Adams left yesterday for New Albany to visit friends for a few

Mrs. Charles Paquette, who is spending a fortnight in Elkhart, will return home next week. Miss Mary Stephenson, of Marion, spent Sunday with Mrs. William A. Woods at the Claypool. Mrs. Henry Houghton, who has been spending a short time in Defiance, O., has returned home. Mrs. Samuel Rauh and daughter, Miss Estelle Rauh, have gone to Chicago to spend a week. Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wood, of Kokomo, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamlin for a few days. Mrs. May Wright Sewall will not observe her usual Wednesday afternoon at home this week.

Mrs. Edward Greer entertained her card club yesterday afternoon at her apartment Miss Trichler, of Brookville, Ind., is London Daily Mail. visiting Miss Sheppard on Walcott street for several days.

Mr. Dwight Perkins, who has been spending a few weeks in Meadville, Pa., will return home this week. Governor and Mrs. Winfield Durbin, who went to French Lick to spend Sunday, have returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Camp, who have been spending ten days at French Lick, Will return home to-day. Mr. and Mrs. Anson Gardner entertained their card club last evening at their home on North Meridian street. Miss Manner, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Maurie, will return to her home in Louisville on Friday. Mrs. William Neff and daughter, who have have been spending several weeks in California, have returned home.

ing her sister in Buffalo, N. Y., for a few weeks, will return home this week. Mrs. Ernest Tripp has gone to North Vernon to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Verbarg. Mrs. Charles Divine, of Toledo, O., will come to-day to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lazarus, for a few weeks. Miss Bess Nicholson, of Chicago, arrived last evening to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Philip Meier for two weeks. Miss Anna Stewart, who has been spending the winter in New York with her aunt, Mary Campbell, of Burlington, Ia., are visiting their brother, Mr. Reginald Campbell. The Troubadour Club gave an enjoyable dance at Brenneke's last evening to the Manual Training High School alumni and

Mrs. N. A. Gladding was the hostess yesterday for a small whist party in honor her visitor, Mrs. Baldwin, of New Mr. and Mrs. D. Newman announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Minnie Newman, and Mr. Perry E. Grosse, of Mrs. Bennett and daughter, Miss Helen Bennett, who have been spending a few Mr. and Mrs. Robert Springsteen, who tables were consigned to sit among th went to Muncie to spend Sunday with Mrs. | ranks of the rejected. Springteen's sister, Mrs. W. H. Whitney, have returned home Miss Lucile Potter will go to Cleveland, O., the first of next week to visit her cousin, Mr. Harry Parsons, and Mrs. Parsons for a fortnight.

Mrs. Walter Nichols, of St. Louis, who has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. George Edward Branham, has Mrs. George Coats, of Aurora, Ill., who ors has been displaying in his showroom is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Adolph Seiden-sticker and Mrs. A. J. Mullan, will return to her home next week. Miss Helen Knight, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. W. W. Knight, and Mr. and Mrs. Stoughton A. Fletcher, has returned to her home. Miss Ruby Bailey, who has been the guest of Miss Hazel Woodward, has returned to her home in Veedersburg. Miss Edythe Stillman is spending a few days with Miss

Mrs. Buck and Mrs. Weaver, of Laporte, will come to-day to attend the marriage of Mrs. Buck's son, Mr. Charles Henry Morrison, and Miss Mary Foster, which takes place this afternoon. A leap year dance was given last evening at Brenneke's by a number of young girls. The chaperons for the dance were charm the eyes of all beholders. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maffey and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Jacob.

A subscription dance was given at the Assembly Hall, Sixteenth and Illinois streets, last evening, by a number of young men. Mr. Felix Geddes was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. Mrs. W. P. Brown will entertain her Sunday School class at the home of Miss North street. Miss Vetta Hamlin is president of the club. Little Gertrude Tuenime will sing, and Miss Iva Losey and her company will give a sketch. The marriage of Mr. Merritt R. Wells, of Pittsburg, and Miss Daisy Nagle, of Lafayette, will take place to-morrow in ment to-night at St. Joseph's Hall, 615 East

Lafayette. The at-home announcement is for Pittsburg, Pa. Mr. Wells formerly lived in this city, and has many admiring friends Mrs. W. F. Winchester will go to Washington, D. C., the latter part of next week to attend the blennial council of the National Society of Colonial Dames, which meets from the 4th to 7th of May in that city. Mrs. Winchester is the delegate from the Indiana society. Miss Welshans will entertain her musica! club this afternoon in honor of Miss Kelly, of Guelph, Ont., who is visiting Miss Ethel

Thursday Miss Helen Smith will entertain with a luncheon at the Columbia Club in Miss Kelly's honor, and Thursday evening Miss Florence Baxter will give a chafing-dish party for her. Cards have been received in the city announcing the marriage of Miss Grace Cymlotte Galloway, daughter of Mr. and

Mrs. Alexander Galloway, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mr. Maurice C. White on Saturday. April 2. The at-home announcement is after June 1, at 2650 Hillsdale avenue, Los Angeles, Cal. Dr. and Mrs. Galloway formerly lived in Indianapolis. The marriage of Miss Helen Mae Westfall and Mr. J. Edward Knisel took place yesterday at noon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John M. Hall, at the Palmer on North Illinois street. Only the relatives were present for the ceremony, which was pronounced by the Rev. Joshua Stansfield, of Meridian-street Church. The bride was becomingly gowned in a gray crepe de chine with trimmings of chiffon and duchess lace. She wore a picture hat of violets and carried a shower bouquet of violets. After the ceremony a breakfast was served. The bride's table was prettily arranged with white roses and smilax and the parlors were decorated in palms, ferns and carnations. A harpist played for the ceremony and during the breakfast. HARDY-LINDAMOOD. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PORTLAND, Ind., April 18 .- Chance N. Hardy and Miss Virginia J. Lindamood were married at the residence of the bride's partment by telephone, or mail, and the parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Linda-purchase will be made immediately and the mood, last evening, the Rev. O. A. Harris goods sent to you C. O. D. Your purchase officiating. The groom is deputy clerk of

"Alas!" said the beautiful girl. "He has sworn to me that I am really the first girl

Not a Hopeless Case.

he ever loved! And he is so noble, so truthful, that I cannot look into his eyes and think he is deceiving me!" "But," said her friend, "is there anything so terrible about it? Suppose you are really the first girl he ever loved."

"Ah! What a misfortune! I know—for I have made a study of this question-that a man does not marry the first girl he ever Address Journal Shopping Department. | loved—not once in a million times! And | why should I expect to be the exception to a pect but that he will m-m-marry somebody And she sobbed convulsively until her friend managed to suggest that, in her opinion, the principal reason why a man does with comparative cheerfullness. Menu for a Day.

Suggestions furnished by Table Talk to housekeepers of moderate means: -Breakfast .-Fruit Sugar and Cream Gluten Grits

Hash on Toast

Planked Shad

Coffee Milk Biscuit -Lunch.-Alpha Salad Cream Potato Salad Cake -Dinner.-Onion Soup ad Mashed Potatoes

Julienne Potatoes

Asparagus Tomato Salad Preserved Ginger Cookies Coffee

A "Novel" Luncheon.

As nine out of ten women are inveterate con parties is sure to attract every hostess ment that will please her guests.

Invitations to a luncheon party for twenty guests, who must perforce be well versed in modern fiction, are sent out by the up to are arranged round the room and that each table has a different scheme of decoration. In fact, every table is designed to carry out the representation of a well-known novel, Mrs. Frank G. Wood, who is spending and before the guests are allowed to be two weeks with her mother in Kenton, scated the names of the ten works of fiction Mrs. Otto Haueisen, who has been visit- awarded to the quickest guesser, and the fortunate ones are allowed to partake of luncheon before their less astute friends. The favorite novel, "The Four Feathers, is one that lends itself to a very effective arrangement in white feathers, and an in cident in the book should be illustrated by a decoration in the center. When possible some article of food mentioned in the book should be supplied by the menu for this table. Barrie's "Little White Bird" is a story that can be graphically carried out at a "novel" luncheon, and "Trilby" is still another celebrated work of fiction that suggests itself as easy to arrange and easy to guess. "Under Two Flags" makes quite an artistic table, with its setting of exotic flowers surmounted by the two flags, and 'A Japanese Marriage" can also be pictorially represented. At a "novel" luncheon given the other day by a writer of fiction to other professionals, the hostess had provided a tablecloth made of white, blue and pink blotting paper pieced together, while the center ornament consisted of a bowl made from newspapers and filled with coxcombs. This flower, as bol of the critics who had unfavorably reviewed her works of fiction. The name cards were slips of paper familiar to all the guests, and were nothing less than the printed messages of regret returned with he manuscripts from unfeeling editors. This table was called the consolation tadays in Michigan with relatives, will return | ble, and those who were unable to guess more than half the names of the "novel"

Old Macrame Lace. Washington Post. fashion revolves or whatever it is that an older day. One of the fashionable tailyards and yards of the latest thing in dress row of tacks pounded into a board, in the days when an undraped mantel was held to be almost indelicate, and every shelf had its lambrequin. We used to make opera bags and work bags of it, too, in the age when we did crazy patchwork, and painted on plush, but nobody ever dreamed then of using it for dress trimmings. In these times there is none of us who need be without some dainty touch in the matter of trimmings. If you haven't an old macrame lambrequin put your wits to work. An Summer Missionary Conference to the old Brussels carpet would be exceedingly chic, and a shirtwaist with insets of linoleum squares in an 1830 effect would

The Pair Habit.

The Queen. There are two or three kinds of drawpossible to prevent the thought flashing across the mind that if pairing originated with the flood, one can only wish that Noah had taken the animals into the ark one by

HOME DRESSMAKING HINTS.

By MAY MANTON.

Walking skirts that provide generous fullness and flare, yet are snug over the hips, make the latest and most graceful shown. The model illustrated is admirable in every way, and means comfort to the wearer as well as style. As shown, it is made of tan-colored cravenette stitched O. Shelton, associate secretary of the Conwith corticelli silk and trimmed with fibre braid, but all suiting and skirting materials are appropriate, and simple stitching can be used as a finish in place of the braid when preferred.

The skirt is cut in nine gores, with extensions at all front and side seams, that 4709 Nine Gored Walking Skirt. 22 to 30 waist. PERFORATED FOR DIP IN FRONT.

above the plaits, as illustrated, or finished with bands of braid. The fullness at the eack is laid in inverted plaits that are tried it again and followed directions carestitched to match the seams, and the upper edge can be finished with the belt or cut on dip outline and underfaced or bound, as may be preferred. The quantity of material required for the medium size is 11% yards 27 inches wide, 6% yards 44 inches wide, or 5 yards 52 inches wide when material has figure or nap; 81/4 yards 27, 51/4 yards 44, or 41/2 yards 52 inches wide when material has neither figure nor nap, with 8 yards of braid to trim as illustrated. The pattern 4709 is cut in sizes for a 22. 26, 28 and 30-inch waist measure. PATTERN COUPON.

For patterns of garment illustrated above send 16 cents (coin or stamps.)
Cut out illustration and inclose it in letter.
Write your name and address distinctly and state number and size wanted, Address
Pattern Dept., The Journal, Allow one week for return of pattern.

AMUSEMENTS.

ENGLISH'S-Curtain Thurs., April 21 One Performance Only FRANCIS WILSON And His All Star Company in

Prices-50c to $2.00. Seats Ready To-day, Saturday at 2 and 8-Seats Thursday at 9 a. m. Prices, 50c 10 $2.00. - MR. RICHARD -

MANSFIELDin

ERMINIE

Sat. Matinee-OLD HEIDELBERG. Sat. Night-IVAN THE TERRIBLE. GRAND OPERA HOUSE FASHIONABLE VAUDEVILLE HELEN BERTRAM

Melani Trio, Avon Comedy Four, Whistling Tom Browne, Ed F. Reynard, William Windom, Goolmans, Bioscope. Extra Attraction, Hallen & Fuller, Matinee every day, 10c, 20c, 25c, PARK THEATER 2 p. m. Monday, Tues.,

lasting musical comedy success, 'THE GOVERNOR'S SON." By Geo. M. Cohan. The same cast as when here last, including 35 Chorus and Dancing Girls. Everybody goes to the Park. Prices, 10-20-30.

Return engagement of the Four Cohans' ever-

EMPIRE THEATER Wabash and Delawars Sta. ONE WEEK ONLY Commencing Monday Matinee, April 18

MATINEE DAILY.

MUSICAL.

Prices of admission, 10c, 15c, 25c, 50c Next Week-"The Blue Ribbon Co."

Telephone, 1317 NEW.

The Central College of Music

Guarantees thorough training in all branches of the Art of Music. Phones: New, 4626 | Send for Catalog EDWARD TAYLOR, Director, 550 North Meridian Street.

WILLIAM HENRY ASH Voice Culture and Singing Voices examined without charge. Hotel Charlemon', 738 N. Illinois St.

Indiana Dental College Open Daily Through Spring and Summer Skilled demonstrators always in attendance. The fees are to cover the cost only.

Corner Delaware and Ohio Sts. REMOVAL

Columbia Phonograph Co. Newton Claypool Building

To 48 North Pennsylvania St. PLAN FOR YOUNG PEOPLE'S

MEETING AT WINONA LAKE Be Held in July Will Be

Largely Attended. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WINONA LAKE, Ind., April 18 .- It has been arranged to hold a young people's summer missionary conference at Winona lake July 1-10, and the indications are that Caroline Martin on Friday afternoon. The room where everything is in pairs; there The aim of the conference is to deepen assistant hostesses will be Miss Kennedy, are pairs of vases, pairs of photograph spiritual life and missionary purposes in Miss King, Miss Richardson and Miss frames, pairs of pictures, pairs of foot- the church of the future, as at present enstools, pairs of everything. It is im- rolled, organized and in training in the Sunday schools and young people's societies; to serve as annual councils for the organization of the year's campaign and as training schools for the better equipment of leaders.

> It is impossible at this time to announce a complete list of speakers, but among those who are expected to assist on the programme are the following well-known leaders: The Rev. John F. Goucher, president of the Woman's College, Baltimore; John R. Mott, secretary of the World's Student Federation; Robert E. Speer, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in America; Don gregational Home Missionary Society; Dr. H. P. Saller, educational secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in America: the Rev. E. H. Dutton, assistant secretary of the Bantist Missionary Union; the Rev. A. W. Halsey, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in America; Harry Wade Hicks, assistant secretary of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions; Harry S. Myers, general secretary of the United Society of Free Baptist Young People; the Rev. A. L. Phillips, general superintendent of Sabbath school work of the Presbyterian committee of publication; S. Earl Taylor, field secretary for young people's work of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church; the Rev. William M. Bell, secretary of the Missionary Society of the United Brethren in Christ; Harry Munroe and Mr. M. E. Trotter.

DIDN'T LIKE IT.

Soon Found Why.

Coffee has a terrible hold on some peo-"About eight years ago I was a great sufferer from stomach trouble; my liver was all out of fix and a wise doctor forbid tea and coffee. At that time I was so weak I could hardly walk, absolutely pois-

"One day I noticed Postum in the store and having read about it I bought a package and made some. I did not like it, but fully. It was not long before I liked it better than any other drink, and it has brought me out of all the old coffee

"I can now eat what I want, am strong and healthy, and the effects of Postum on me were so good all our family soon drank it. "In summer when the weather is hot I do not have that 'all gone' feeling now, for when I drink a cup of Postum it refreshes and strengthens but never has the bad after-effect like coffee. "Postum is like everything else-it needs to be made right and there is no better way than the directions on the package. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek,

There's a reason.

Look in each package for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."